★ Senate Intelligence Committee Chairman David Durenberger (R-Minn.) has slapped the President in the face once again. Durenberger, whose committee passes on covert aid requests, told the Washington Post last week he opposed the President's plans to furnish military assistance to the Contras. "They can forget it as far as I'm concerned," he said. "I haven't seen any justification for moving to military aid at this point, either overt or covert."
